- c. Every affidavit shall be drawn up in the first person and shall state the full name, age, occupation and address of the deponent and the capacity in which he is signing and shall be signed and sworn before a person lawfully authorized to take and receive affidavits. The affidavit shall also declare that there is no case pending in any court of law / tribunal or arbitrator or any other authority wherein the deponent is a party and where issues arising and / or reliefs sought are identical or similar to the issues arising in the matter pending before the Commission. The affidavit shall be typed on a stamp paper of a value prescribed by the State Government for affidavits in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 as amended from time to time.
- d. Every affidavit shall clearly and separately indicate statements, which are true to the-

- i. knowledge of the deponent
 - ii. information received by the deponent; and
 - iii. belief of the deponent.
- e. Where any statement in affidavit is stated to be true to the information received by the deponent the affidavit shall also disclose the source of the information and a statement that the deponent believes that information to be true.
- f. In accordance with Section 193 of Indian Penal Code, 1860, whoever intentionally gives false evidence in any of the Proceedings of the Commission or fabricates evidence for the purpose of being used in any of the Proceedings, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term, which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine.

19. Presentation and scrutiny of the pleadings, etc.:

- a. All Petitions, including those submitted by electronic mail, shall be filed in five copies and each set of the Petition shall be complete in all respects. The fees as have been prescribed by the Commission in the UPERC (Fees and Fines) Regulations, 2010 as amended from time to time shall be payable along with the Petition. Further in cases where any license or agreement is being filed before the Commission for which an approval is being sought, one soft copy in PDF and Word/Excel format shall be filed along with the Petition.
- b. All Petitions shall be presented in person or by any duly authorized agent or representative at the headquarters or such other filing center or centers as may be notified by the Commission from time to time and during the notified time. The Petitions may also be sent by electronic mail or registered post acknowledgement due to the Commission at the place mentioned above. The vakalatnama in favor of the Advocate and in the event the Petitions are presented by an authorized agent or representative the document authorizing the agent or representative shall be filed along with the Petition, if not already filed on the record of the case.
- c. Upon the receipt of the Petition the Petition Officer/staff shall acknowledge the receipt by stamping and endorsing the date on which the Petition has been presented and shall issue an acknowledgement with stamp and date to the person filing the Petition. In case the Petition is received by registered post, the date on which the Petition is actually received at the office of the Commission shall be taken as the date of the presentation of the Petition.

- d. The presentation and the receipt of the Petition shall be duly entered in the register maintained for the purpose by the office of the Commission.
- e. The Petition Officer may decline to accept any Petition which does not conform to the provisions of the Applicable Legal Framework or the Regulations or directions given by the Commission or otherwise defective or which is presented otherwise than in accordance with the Regulations or directions of the Commission.
- f. Provided however no Petition shall be refused for defect in the pleadings or in the presentation, without giving an opportunity to the person filing the Petition to rectify the defect within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of dispatch of intimation of the defect in writing from the Petition Officer.
- g. On receipt of the intimation of the defect from the Petition Officer, the person filing the Petition may rectify the defect within the stipulated period or in case the person is aggrieved by any order of the Petition Officer, may request the matter to be placed before the Secretary of the Commission for appropriate orders.
- h. The Chairman or any Member as the Chairman may designate for the purpose shall be entitled to call for the Petition presented by the Party and give such directions regarding the presentation and acceptance of the Petition as he considers appropriate within a period of seven (7) days from the date of receipt of the request received from the Party.
- i. If on scrutiny, the Petition is accepted or in case any order of refusal is rectified by the Secretary or by the Chairman or the Member of the Commission designated for the purpose, the Petition shall be duly registered and given a number in the manner as per practice followed by the Commission.
- j. As and when the Petition and all necessary documents are lodged and the defects and objections, if any, are removed and the Petition has been scrutinized and numbered, the Petition shall be put up before the Commission as early as possible for admission. Provided, the Petitions seeking interim relief shall be put up before the Commission within seven (7) working days after service of notice.
- k. The Commission may admit the Petition for hearing without requiring the attendance of the party. The Commission shall not pass an order refusing admission without giving the party concerned an opportunity of being heard.
- l. If the Commission admits the Petitions, it may give such orders and directions, as may be deemed necessary, for service of notices to the respondent and other affected or interested parties, for the filing of replies and rejoinder in opposition or in support of the Petition in such form as the Commission may direct.

The notice to the respondent shall be issued within fifteen (15) days of the Petition being admitted and the Petitioner shall take steps to serve notices on all parties to the Petition.

20. Service of notices and processes issued by the Commission

- a. i. Any notice or process to be issued by the Commission may be served by any one or more of the following modes as maybe directed by the Commission –
 - (1) service by any of the party to the Proceedings;
 - (2) by hand delivery through a messenger;
 - (3) by registered post with acknowledgement;
 - (4) by fax, electronic mail, speed post, courier or pasting;
 - (5) by publication in newspaper in cases where the Commission is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to serve the notices, processes, etc. on any person in the manner mentioned above;
 - (6) in any other manner as considered appropriate by the Commission.
- ii. The Commission shall, however, be entitled to decide in each case the person(s) who shall bear the cost of such service / publications.
- b. Every notice or process required to be served on or delivered to any person may be sent to the person or his agent empowered to accept service at the address furnished by him for service or at the place where the person or his agent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.
- c. In the event any matter is pending before the Commission and the person to be served has authorised an agent or representative to appear for or represent him or her in the matter, such agent or representative shall be deemed to be duly empowered to take service of the notices and processes on behalf of the party concerned in all matters and the service on such agent or representative shall be taken as due service on the person to be served.
- d. Where a party serves a notice of the Proceedings either in person or through registered post, an affidavit of service shall be filed by the party with the Commission giving details of the date and manner of service of notices and processes.
- e. Where any Petition is required to be advertised, it shall be advertised within such time as the Commission may direct and, unless otherwise directed by the Commission, in one issue each of a daily newspaper in the English Language and one daily newspaper in Hindi language having circulation in the area specified by the Commission.

- f. Save as otherwise provided in the Applicable Legal Framework or in the Regulations and subject to any direction which the Commission or the Secretary or the Officer designated for the purpose may give, the person moving the Commission for hearing namely the Petitioner, applicant or any other person whom the Commission makes responsible for the conduct of the Proceedings shall arrange service of all notices, summons, and other processes and for advertisement and publication of notices and processes required to be served. The Commission may also affect service or give directions for effecting service in any other manner it considers appropriate.
- g. In default of compliance with the requirements of the Regulations or directions of the Commission as regards the service of notices, summons or processes or the advertisement and publication thereof the Commission may either dismiss the Petition or give such other further directions, as the Commission may consider appropriate.
- h. No service or publication required to be done shall be deemed invalid by reason of any defect in the name or description of a person provided that the Commission is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient, and no proceeding shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or irregularity unless the Commission, on an objection taken, is of the opinion that substantial injustice has been caused by such defect or irregularity or there are otherwise sufficient reasons for doing so.

21. Filing of reply, opposition, objections, etc.:

- a. Each person to whom the notice of inquiry or the Petition is issued (hereinafter the Respondent) who intends to oppose or support the Petition shall file the reply and the documents relied upon within such period not exceeding four (4) weeks or such period as is specified by the Commission and in such number of copies as may be fixed by the Commission. In the reply filed, the respondent shall specifically admit, deny or explain the facts stated in the notice of inquiry or the Petition and may also state such additional facts as he considers necessary for just decision of the case. The reply shall be signed and verified and supported by affidavit in the same manner as in the case of the Petition. The Respondent shall also indicate whether he wishes to participate in the Proceedings and be orally heard.
- b. The respondent shall serve a copy of the reply along with the documents duly attested to be true copies on the Petitioner or his authorized representative and file proof of such service with the office of the Commission at the time of filing the reply.

- c. Where the Respondent states additional facts as may be necessary for the just decision of the case, the Commission may allow the Petitioner to file a rejoinder to the reply filed by the Respondent within a period of four (4) weeks thereafter or such period as is specified by the Commission. The procedure mentioned above for filing of the reply shall apply mutatis mutandis to the filing of the rejoinder.

 - i. Every person who intends to file objection or comments in regard to a matter pending before the Commission pursuant to the advertisement and publication issued for the purpose (other than the persons to whom notices, processes, etc. have been issued calling for reply) shall deliver to an Officer designated by the Commission for the purpose the statement of the objection or comments with copies of the documents and evidence in support thereof within the time fixed for the purpose or in case no time has been specified, within a period of not exceeding four (4) weeks from the date of the advertisement / publication issued for the purpose or such period as is specified by the Commission.

 - ii. The Commission may permit such person or persons who file objection or comments as provided in clause (1) or any other person as the Commission considers appropriate to participate in the Proceedings before the Commission, in case the Commission considers that the participation of such person or persons will facilitate the Proceedings and the decision in the matter.

 - iii. Unless permitted by the Commission, the person filing objection or comments shall not be entitled to participate in the Proceedings. However, the Commission shall be entitled to take into account the objections and comments filed by the person(s) after giving such opportunity to the parties in the Proceedings as the Commission consider appropriate to deal with the objections and comments.

22. Hearing of the matter:

- a. The Commission may determine the stages, manner, the place and the time of the hearing of the matter as the Commission considers appropriate, consistent with such specific timing requirements as are set forth in the Applicable Legal Framework or otherwise to fulfill the need for timely completion of the matters taking into account the relief prayed for.

- b.
 - i. The Commission may decide the matter on the pleadings and documents filed by the parties and may call for the parties to produce evidence by way of affidavit or lead oral evidence in the matter, as the Commission may consider appropriate.

- ii. If the Commission directs evidence of a party to be led by way of affidavit, the Commission may, as and when the Commission considers it to be necessary, grant an opportunity to the other party to cross-examine the deponent on the affidavit filed.
- iii. The Commission may, if considered necessary or expedient, direct that the evidence of any of the parties be recorded by an Officer or person designated for the purpose by the Commission
- iv. The Commission may direct the parties to file written arguments or submissions in any matter heard by the Commission.

23. Power of the Commission to call for further information, evidence, etc.:

- a. The Commission may, at any time before passing orders on the matter, require the parties or any one or more of them or any other person whom the Commission considers appropriate to produce such documentary or other evidence as the Commission may consider necessary for the purpose of enabling it to pass orders.
- b. The Commission may direct the summoning of the witnesses, discovery and production of any document or other material objects producible in evidence, requisition of any public record from any office, examinations by an Officer of the Commission, the books, accounts or other documents or information in the custody or control of any person which the Commission considers relevant for the matter.

24. Reference of issues to others:

- a. At any stage of the Proceedings the Commission shall be entitled to refer such issue or issues in the matter as it considers appropriate to persons including but not limited to, the Officers and consultants of the Commission whom the Commission considers as qualified to give expert advice or opinion.
- b. The Commission may nominate from time to time any person including, but not limited to, the Officers and the consultants to visit any place or places for inspection and report on the existence or status of the place or any facilities therein.
- c. The Commission, if it thinks fit, may direct the parties to appear before the persons designated in clause (a) or (b) above to present their respective views on the issues or matters referred to.
- d. The report or the opinion received from such person shall form a part of the record of the case and the parties shall be given the copies of the report or opinion given by the person designated by the Commission. The parties shall be entitled to file their version either in support or in opposition to the report or the opinion.

- e. The Commission shall duly take into account the report or the opinion given by the person the reply filed by the parties while deciding the matter and if considered necessary, the examination before the Commission of the person giving the report or the opinion. Provided that the Commission shall not be bound by the report or the opinion given as conclusive.

25. Procedure to be followed where any party does not appear:

- a. Where, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, any of the party or his authorized agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, the Commission may, in its discretion, either dismiss the Petition for default (in case the Petitioner or the person who moves the Commission for hearing does not appear) or proceed ex parte (in case the respondent or the person against whom the Petition is filed does not appear) and decide the Petition. Where neither the applicant nor the opponent appears when the application is called for hearing, the Commission may dismiss it for default.
- b. Where a Petition is dismissed in default or decided ex parte, the Person aggrieved may file an application within thirty (30) days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex parte, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Commission may recall the order on such terms as it thinks fit, if the Commission is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance of the Party concerned, when the Petition was called for hearing.
- c. Where the issue before the Commission requires to be decided on merit and any party is not responding to the notices, the Commission may direct the Petitioner to publish a notice in newspaper having wide circulation and decide the issue on merits on the basis of the material available on record.

26. Orders of the Commission:

- a.
 - i. The Commission shall pass orders on the Petition and the Chairman and the Members of the Commission, who heard the matter shall sign the orders.
 - ii. In case, after hearing and while giving judgment or decision, the Chairman or any Member of the Commission dissents, he shall give his dissenting judgment with reasons. Majority view of the Commission shall be final in the judgment.

- b. The Commission may pass at any stage, in any proceeding before it, such interim orders, including interim ex-parte orders that it may consider appropriate, to, amongst other things, protect the rights and interest of any of the parties to the Proceedings or any other person including consumers or any class or classes of consumers.
- c. The reasons given by the Commission in support of the orders, including those by the dissenting Member, if any, shall form a part of the order and shall be available for inspection and supply of copies in accordance with these Regulations.
- d. All orders and decisions issued or communicated by the Commission shall be certified by the signature of the Secretary or an Officer empowered in this behalf by the Commission and bear the official seal of the Commission.
- e. All final orders of the Commission shall be communicated to the parties in the proceeding under the signature of the Secretary or an Officer empowered in this behalf by the Commission

27. Inspection of records and supply of certified copies:

- a. All the records of the proceeding including documents, statements, photographs, recordings whether audio or video, shall be exclusive property of the Commission and cannot be copied, printed, screened, published, quoted or broadcasted without prior and written approval of the Commission.
- b. Records of every Proceeding shall be open, to the inspection of the parties or their authorized representatives at any time either during the Proceeding or after the orders are passed, subject to payment of fee and complying with other terms as the Commission may direct.
- c. Records of every Proceeding, except those parts which for reasons specified by the Commission are confidential or privileged, shall be open to inspection by any person other than the parties to the Petition either during the Proceeding or after the orders have been passed, subject to such person complying with such terms as the Commission may direct from time to time including in regard to time, place and manner of inspection and payment of fees.
- d. Any person shall be entitled to obtain certified copies of the orders, decisions, directions and reasons in support thereof given by the Commission as well as the pleadings, papers and other parts of the records of the Commission to which he is entitled subject to payment of fee and complying with other terms which the Commission may direct.

CHAPTER 3
ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES

28. a. The arbitration of disputes (other than those between the Licensee and Consumer,) arising between licensees and generating companies may be commenced on receipt of an application from licensees or, generating companies, as the case may be.
- b. The Commission shall on receipt of any application under praying for arbitration of disputes, issue notice to the other party to show cause as to why the dispute on the matters as specified in the notice should not be adjudicated and settled through arbitration.
- c. i. The Commission may, after hearing the party/ies to whom notices have been issued and if satisfied that no reason or cause has been shown against the proposed arbitration, pass an order directing that the disputes or the matter be referred for Adjudication and settlement through arbitration either by the Commission or by a person or persons to be nominated by the Commission.
- ii. If the Commission decides to refer the matter to arbitration by a person or persons other than the Commission the reference shall be:
- (1) to a sole arbitrator if the parties to the dispute agree on the name of the arbitrator; or
 - (2) if the parties are unable to agree on the name to a sole arbitrator, to a sole arbitrator to be designated by the Commission or to three persons as the Commission may direct taking into account the nature of the disputes and the value involved. If the decision is to refer to three arbitrators, one shall be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute and the third by the Commission:

Provided that if any of the parties fails to nominate the arbitrator or if any of the arbitrator nominated by the parties or the Commission fails or neglects to act or continue as arbitrator the Commission shall be entitled to nominate any other person in his place.

Without prejudice to the generality of application of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 as amended by the Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Act, 2015 in the matter of appointment of the arbitrators, it shall be particularly subject to requirements laid down under Section 11, Section 12 and 7th Schedule of the Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Act, 2015.

- iii. The Commission shall not nominate a person as arbitrator to whom any of the licensees or the other concerned person in the arbitration has a reasonable objection on grounds of possible bias or similar reasons, if the Commission considers the objection to be valid and justified.
- c. In case the Commission acts as the arbitrator the procedure for Adjudication and settlement to be followed shall be as far as possible the same as in the case of hearing before the Commission provided for in Chapter 2 above.
- d. The Commission shall be entitled to pass appropriate orders, as it thinks fit after giving an opportunity for hearing the parties.

CHAPTER 4

INVESTIGATION, INQUIRY, COLLECTION OF INFORMATION, ETC.

- 29. a. The Commission may make such order or orders as it thinks fit in terms of the Applicable Legal Framework and Regulations made by the Commission, for collection of information, inquiry, investigation, entry, search, and seizure and without prejudice to the generality of its powers in regard to the following:
- i. The Commission may, at any time, direct the Secretary or any one or more Officers or consultants or any other person as the Commission considers appropriate to study, investigate or furnish information with respect to any matter within the purview of the Commission under the Applicable Legal Framework.
 - ii. The Commission may for the above purpose give such other directions as it may deem fit and specify the time within which the report is to be submitted or information furnished.
 - iii. The Commission may issue or authorize the Secretary or an Officer to issue directions to any person to produce before it and allow to be examined and kept by an Officer of the Commission specified in this behalf the books, accounts, etc. or to furnish to an Officer information, etc. as provided in the Applicable Legal Framework and Regulations made by the Commission.
 - iv. The Commission may, for the purpose of collecting any information, particulars or documents which the Commission consider necessary in connection with the discharge of its functions under

- the Applicable Legal Framework, issue such directions and follow any one or more of the methods provided for in the Applicable Legal Framework.
- v. If any such report or information obtained as specified in the Applicable Legal Framework or in these Regulations appears to the Commission to be insufficient or inadequate, the Commission or the Secretary or an Officer authorized for the purpose may give directions for further inquiry report and furnishing of information.
 - vi. The Commission may direct such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters be attended to which may be considered relevant in connection with the above.
- b. In connection with the discharge of the functions under the Applicable Legal Framework and Regulation 29 (d), the Commission may, if it thinks fit, direct a notice of inquiry to be issued and proceed with the matter in a manner provided under Chapter 2 of these Regulations.
 - c. The Commission may, at any time, take the assistance of any institution, consultants, experts, engineers, chartered accountants, advocates, surveyors and such other technical and professional persons, as it may consider necessary, and ask them to study, investigate, inquire into any matter or issue and submit report or reports or furnish any information. The Commission may determine the terms and conditions for engagement of such professionals.
 - d. If the report or information obtained in terms of the above Regulations or any part thereof is proposed to be relied upon by the Commission forming its opinion or view in any Proceedings, the parties in the Proceedings shall be given a reasonable opportunity for filing objections and making submissions on the report or information.
- e
 - i. The Commission may, on being satisfied that a licensee has failed to comply with any of the conditions of license or a generating company or a licensee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this Applicable Legal Framework or rules or Regulations made there under, at any time, by order in writing, direct any person to investigate the affairs of any generating company or licensee and report to the Commission on any investigation made by such Investigating Authority. Provided that the Investigating Authority may, wherever necessary, employ any auditor or any other person for the purpose of assisting him in any investigation under this section.
 - ii. The licensee or generating company shall be under a duty to produce before the Investigating Authority all such books of account, registers and other documents in his custody or power and to furnish him with any statement and information relating to the affairs of the licensee or generating company, as the case may be, as the said Investigating Authority may require of him within such time as the said Investigating Authority may specify.

- iii. The Investigating Authority would be empowered to examine on oath any manager, managing director or other Officer of the licensee or generating company, as the case may be, in relation to his business and may administer oaths accordingly. The Investigating Authority, shall, if directed by the Commission to cause an inspection to be made.
- iv. On receipt of any report and after giving such opportunity to the licensee or generating company, as the case may be, to make a representation in connection with the report as the Commission seems reasonable, it may by order in writing –
 - (1) require the licensee or the generating company to take such action in respect of any matter arising out of the report as the Commission may think fit; or
 - (2) cancel the license; or
 - (3) direct the generating company to cease to carry on the business of generation of electricity.
- v. The Commission may, after giving reasonable notice to the licensee or the generating company, as the case may be, publish the report submitted by the Investigating Authority or such portion thereof as may appear to it to be necessary.
- vi. The Commission may specify the minimum information to be maintained by the licensee or the generating company in their books, the manner in which such information shall be maintained, the checks and other verifications to be adopted by licensee or the generating company in that connection and all other matters incidental thereto as are, in its opinion, necessary to enable the Investigating Authority to discharge satisfactorily its functions. For the purposes of this Regulations, the expression “licensee or the generating company” shall include in the case of a licensee incorporated in India –
 - (1) all its subsidiaries formed for the purpose of carrying on the business of generation or transmission or distribution or trading of electricity exclusively outside India; and
 - (2) all its branches whether situated in India or outside India.
 - (3) all expenses of, and incidental to, any investigation made under this provision shall be defrayed by the licensee or generating company, as the case may be, and shall have priority over that debts due from the licensee or the generating company and shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

- vii. Where the Commission, on the basis of material in its possession, is satisfied that a licensee is contravening, or is likely to contravene, any of the conditions mentioned in his licence or conditions for grant of exemption or the licensee or the generating company has contravened or is likely to contravene any of the provisions of this Applicable Legal Framework, it shall, by an order, give such directions as may be necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with that condition or provision. While giving such directions, the Commission shall have due regard to the extent to which any person is likely to sustain loss or damage due to such contravention.
- viii. The Commission, before issuing any direction for the purpose of securing compliance with that condition or provision, shall –
 - (1) serve notice in the manner as may be specified to the concerned licensee or the generating company;
 - (2) publish the notice in the manner as may be specified for the purpose of bringing the matters to the attention of persons, likely to be affected, or affected;
