ORDER

(DATE OF HEARING: 17.10.2024)

1. During hearing, Sh. Sumeet Notani, representative of RPSCL, submitted that in compliance to the Commission's order dated 22.08.2024, RPSCL has made additional submission on 16.10.2024 on three issues as follows:
 - i. Regarding the first issue, related to follow up for exemption of Rosa from mandatory use of STP water, Sh. Notani submitted that matter of Rosa TPP along with other three projects was taken up in the last Steering Committee meeting held on 29.08.2024. The Steering Committee agreed to reconsider the exemption of Rosa TPP from mandatory use of STP water along with two other projects and referred these projects to National Mission for Clean Ganga for their inputs. The Steering Committee would also check the matter with urban development department of respective states before granting the exemption.
 - ii. Regarding the second issue, related to communication with UPJN on the status and timeline for phase wise operation of Shahjahanpur STP, Sh. Notani submitted that UPJN has replied that the construction of Shahjahanpur STP has been completed and STP was under commissioning stage. Approximately 30 MLD of sewage treated water was expected to be available by the end of year 2024, out of total 40 MLD water allotted to Rosa TPP. The remaining 10 MLD of sewage treated water would be available in phases by the year 2035.
 - iii. About the third issue related to impact of additional capex & opex on the tariff, Sh. Notani submitted that based on current PFR submitted by UPJN, the impact of additional capex and opex on tariff was around Rs. 0.6 to 0.16 per unit.
2. Sh. Aditya K. Singh, Counsel for UPPCL, submitted that he would like to make his submission on maintainability of the petition.
