ORDER

(DATE OF HEARING: 27.02.2025)

1. The Commission, vide previous order dated 19.11.2024, granted two weeks to the petitioner for submitting an IA to place additional invoices of FY 2023-24, while UPPCL was allowed four weeks to file its reply. The petitioner was further given four weeks to file rejoinder. Subsequently, UPPCL has submitted its reply on 21.02.2024. However, no IA has been filed by the petitioner.

2. During the hearing, Ms. Puja Priyadarshani, Counsel for Respondent, submitted that a detailed reply has already been filed in the matter. Shri Aditya Pratap Singh,

Counsel for Petitioner, submitted that the petitioner was in the process of collating invoices from contractors and sought permission to include them with the rejoinder. Ms. Priyadarshani contested above by stating that either the respondent may be directed to file a new petition to bring on record the new set of documents or proceedings may continue as per prayers made in the petition.

3. The Commission observed that adequate time had already been allowed to the petitioner and denied any further extension for submission of new documents in the current petition to alter the scope of petition. The Commission further observed that the petitioner may file a fresh Petition if it wishes to introduce new documents into the record. Additionally, the Commission directed the petitioner to submit its rejoinder to the UPPCL's reply within a period of two weeks.

List the matter on 15.04.2025.
